A petition in bankruptcy has been filed by A. H. Shepard of Alburgh. He has liabilities of $377.25 and assets of $200, all of which are claimed exempt.

Brattleboro Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has sent a telegram to President Roosevelt congratulating him and expressing gratitude for the part he took in bringing about the conclusion of peace between Japan and Russia.

H. G. Thomas of Stowe, secretary of the Vermont Fish and Game League, requests that all mail intended for him in his official capacity be sent to the Van Ness house, Burlington, until after the meeting of the league at Bluff Point, N. Y., Friday.

Dr. Guy E. Loudon of Burlington has just received notice that his essay, "Making the Lane to Walk," was selected from forty essays for the $30 gold medal first prize, offered by the Osteopathic Publishing Co. of Chicago, in its prize essay contest for 1905.

There were only fifteen cases of contagious diseases reported to the Rutland city health officer during August. They included eleven of measles, one each of lockjaw, erysipelas, whooping cough, and German measles. Ten deaths occurred in the city during the month.

E. H. Flanders of Barton spent several days on his farm in Morgan last week fitting up his sugar place. Mr. Flanders has 5,000 good sugar trees. He has built a new sugar house and shed, and has fitted up his works at an expense of $1,000. He proposes to continue making first-class sugar as long as it commands present prices.

Mrs. Nancy Hanson, more familiarly known as "Grandmother Hanson," the oldest resident of Orleans county, died at her home on the lake road near North Derby station Monday afternoon, aged 101 years. Mrs. Hanson was born at Stanstead, Que., December 4, 1804, and moved to North Derby in 1844, where she resided until her death. The burial took place in Stanstead yesterday.

There was some disturbance at the hen coop at A. P. Russell's in Monkton Ridge Saturday night and his son Pearl went out with the gun to quell it, but he stumbled in the darkness, which caused an accidental discharge of the gun. Later he discovered that he had shot a mare and a calf. It was thought to be serious and help was summoned, but afterward it was thought they would recover.

James Gaffney, a man about 65 years of age, while working for F. E. Moore clearing the brush on the military post reservation, at Fort Ethan Allen, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Gaffney was at work on a stump puller, when the chain broke, releasing the lever and allowing it to swing outward. Mr. Gaffney was struck in the leg above the knee with much force, knocking him to the ground.

At the Elm cottage tennis tournament at Randolph Tuesday Arthur Hernandez defeated Fred Bass by taking three out of four sets and giving the greatest surprise to the spectators of any match since the tournament opened. Wednesday Fred Bass and Arthur Newton, champions of 1904, defended their title against Lewis and Story, the only runners-up, by taking three sets and only allowing the latter one game out of the 19 played.

The Windham County Veteran's Association which Tuesday held one of the most successful meetings in its history, at Barber park, Bellows Falls, voted to meet in Brattleboro next year. These officers were elected: President, John O. Spring of Bellows Falls; vice president, Hugh H. Holbrook of Townshend; secretary and treasurer, C. M. Russell of Wilmington; executive committee, Col. H. E. Taylor, Capt. H. C. Streeter and Gen. G. H. Bond of Brattleboro.

O. E. Chilson, grand master of the Grand Lodge, L. O. O. F., left Burlington for Boston, where he went upon the invitation of Grand Master G. H. Fuller of Massachusetts to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts Wednesday. Mr. Chilson will be quartered at Young's hotel and his invitation requests him to remain over Friday in order that the attractions of Boston may be shown him. H. E. Parker, grand secretary, will accompany Mr. Chilson.

A farewell reception was tendered the Rev. Edward M. Chapman by the North Congregational church at St. Johnsbury Tuesday evening. After a musical programme Arthur F. Stone, on behalf of the church, presented Mr. and Mrs. Chapman with a silver fruit dish and gave Mr. Chapman a gold-headed cane. The retiring pastor feelingly responded. Mr. Chapman leaves at once for his Connecticut home and from October to January will supply the pulpit of the First Congregational church at Detroit.

Sergt. Leroy Pettigrew, Troop E, 15th Cavalry, Fort Ethan Allen, is under arrest under very grave charges and will be brought before a general court martial to have them investigated. It is alleged that Pettigrew, a short time ago, handed a newspaper man a libelous and untruthful statement regarding discipline in his troop and directed the thrust especially against his first sergeant, James Kilby, an old soldier who recently joined the garrison from the second cavalry, he having served all during the time his regiment was at the fort in Troop K.

Report at Soldier's Home.

The monthly report at the Vermont soldiers' home, Bennington, September 1 showed that there were present 87, of whom 18 are in the hospital and 14 absent with leave, making the total membership 101. The average present during the last ten days has been 85. A year ago the total present was 88 of which 17 were in the hospital. The last addition to the home is Asahel Baker who was admitted from Rutland. He served in Co. D, 27th Mass., Vols., and is in pretty good health. The fol-

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible, one's youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair. The presence of dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as dandruff cure.

Accept no substitute—there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Rickert & Wells, Special Agents.

Following have been re-admitted: Marcus Andrews, who served in Co. D, 13th Vt. Vols.; Henry Slade, who served in Co. A, 17th Vt. Vols.; and Leander White who served in Co. G, 1st Vt. Cav.

Rural Letter Carriers Meet at Morrisville.

A meeting of the rural letter carriers of the state was held at Morrisville Monday for the purpose of organizing a Vermont State Letter Carriers' Association. The meeting was called to order by T. J. Stewart of Morrisville, and an address of welcome on behalf of the village of Morrisville was given by Trustee A. L. Cheney, after which the following officers were elected: President, E. S. Robinson of Morrisville; secretary, A. J. McLellan of Greensboro; vice presidents, Fred Holmes of Johnson, Harry Dillingham of Waterbury, E. C. Prouty of Swanton; executive committee, C. C. Stannard of Lowell, L. W. Blood of Lunenburg, E. K. Edly of Starksboro, Harry Dillingham of Waterbury, L. H. Noyes of Hyde Park, E. C. Prouty of Swanton; committee on resolutions, C. H. Woodcock of North Troy, T. J. Stewart of Morrisville, R. J. Shurtliff of Greensboro Bend; committee on credentials, J. C. Carpenter of Irasburg, L. N. LeBaron of Morrisville, Harry Dillingham of Waterbury; committee on constitution and by-laws, R. W. Larabee of Newport Center, L. H. Noyes of Hyde Park, H. J. McLellan of Greensboro; delegate to national convention held at Indianapolis September 19-22, T. J. Stewart of Morrisville. The next annual meeting will be held in Burlington Labor Day, 1906.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that after marriage many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennington, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." The Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store sell and guarantee them at 50c per bottle.

FREE TO BUTCHERS.

We are in receipt of a communication from C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., which authorizes us to say to those of our readers who are engaged in the Butchering Business that if they will send him a postal card with their name and post-office address thereon, and say that they saw this notice in the Times, he will enter their names on his list of customers and send them free, post-paid, from time to time as issued, his Hide Bulletins, which give the ups and downs of the market on Beef Hides, Calf Skins, Horse Hides, Tallow, Bones, Cracklings, etc. Mr. Page has been in the Hide and Skin trade for more than fifty years and has the reputation of being responsible and reliable.
